

DAN STOLEBARGER
WEEK OF JUNE 16, 2015

ANTI-SEMITISM

Mexican girls' cheer-dance team does Nazi-themed routine. Performers aged 10-16 wear red armbands, display swastikas as they strut in marching-style formation on stage

Fatah Compares Israel to ISIS

With the Islamic State being accepted internationally as a genocidal terror group, the PA and Fatah are repeatedly comparing Israel to the Islamic State as their new method of hate speech against Israel, as Palestinian Media Watch has reported.

Last month, an official Fatah website showed a peace dove being stabbed by a knife marked with both the acronym for Islamic State - "ISIS" (Daesh) - and the Star of David. (See image above) [Fatah's Information and Culture Commission website, March 14, 2015] PMW

Operation Protective Edge UN Report

- ❖ Israel braces for UN report on Gaza war: 'Hostile toward Israel' Although Israeli officials are pleased over Israeli report on Gaza war, they are bracing for U.N. Human Rights Council's report, which is expected to accuse Israel of war crimes
 - PM: Israel adhered to international law, Hamas committed war crimes.
- ❖ Netanyahu leveled harsh criticism at the U.N. Human Rights Council, saying, "This body has already proved its hostility toward Israel and its lack of objectivity, not just against Israel. This is an organization that has adopted more resolutions against Israel than against Syria, Iran and North Korea combined. (Israel Hayom)

Obama's Legacy

Former Mossad chief Shabtai Shavit warned that Iran's superior skill at negotiations will give them the edge in getting what they want in the emerging nuclear deal between Tehran and world powers. "Their patience is much greater than the patience of western negotiators. They will exhaust the Americans, they will squeeze them." Shavit argued that the Iranians will use the fact that US President Barack Obama wants an Iran deal as part of his legacy to their advantage, leveraging his desire to get a deal to extract further Western concessions.

You Got to be Kidding Me!

- ❖ According to top Obama confidant David Axelrod, the President said, "You know, I think I am the closest thing to a Jew that has ever sat in this office".
- ❖ Axelrod explained that President Obama was responding to allegations that he is anti-Israel. The President even said, "For people to say that I am anti-Israel, or, even worse, anti-Semitic, it hurts."
- ❖ During Obama's tenure, relations between the US and Israel have fallen to their lowest point in decades.
- ❖ President Obama has questioned Israel's dedication to peace and threatened to end the United States' traditional support for Israel at the UN.

Insanity!

Al-Aqsa teacher charges PMW with copyright violation after PMW exposed his teaching that Jews make matzah from blood of children

A Palestinian teacher from the Al-Aqsa Mosque, which is situated on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, taught in his lesson on May 29, 2015, that the reason Europeans expelled Jews and the reason the Nazis burnt Jews in the Holocaust, was because Jews use the blood of non-Jewish children to make matzah bread for Passover. According to Sheikh Khaled Al-Mughrabi, "they were burned in Germany because of these things."

