Headlines

- ❖ Hamas shows off rebuilt Gaza tunnels in new video. A year after war with Israel, Gaza rulers boast of revitalized efforts to prepare its fighters for the next round of violence
- ❖ Despite Palestinian Authority financial woes and its stated inability to pay salaries and debts, the PA leader is building a massive palace in Ramallah to the tune of $13M.
- ❖ Former Top IDF Intel Officer: Military Strike Could Thwart Iranian Nuclearization for Good
- ❖ Obama - on the Iranian issue "we agree more than we disagree," adding that in the debate over the Iran deal, "we're all pro-Israel, and we're all family."

PM: Israel not opposed to a civilian nuke program for Iran. In apparent riposte to Obama, Netanyahu says he is only against Tehran's military ambitions, warns deal puts Iran 'on threshold of nuclear arsenal' within 13 years

Cheney: Iran deal 'tragically reminiscent' of Munich deal (The Munich Agreement was concluded on September 30, 1938, and saw the powers of Europe give in to Nazi Germany's demands for the Sudetenland.)

Iran deal "makes war more, not less, likely," former U.S. Vice President Dick Cheney and his daughter Liz Cheney write in Wall Street Journal op-ed

Obama and the "Crazies"

- ❖ As the vote on Iran in Congress nears, President Obama appears to be under a lot of pressure to have the accord approved, in order to secure his legacy. After a vacation at Martha's Vineyard, President Barack Obama returns to Washington to face off with the opponents of his nuclear accord with the Islamic Republic.
- ❖ Speaking to Senate Minority Leader Harry Reid, Obama reportedly described those who oppose the Iran deal as "the crazies." Obama also said of himself that after the two-week vacation, he is "refreshed, renewed, recharged – a little feisty," according to Politico.
- ❖ Obama told guests at a Democratic fundraiser near Las Vegas late Monday that he and Senate Democratic leader Harry Reid of Nevada had spent time "figuring out how we are going to deal with the crazies in terms of managing some problems."

The Iranian Deal

- ❖ Nearly 200 retired U.S. generals and admirals have sent a letter to Congress calling on lawmakers to reject the nuclear deal with Iran, saying it poses a threat to America's national security, the Washington Post reported on Wednesday. "The agreement will enable Iran to become far more dangerous, render the Mideast still more unstable and introduce new threats to American interests as well as our allies," the letter said.
- ❖ "Removing sanctions on Iran and releasing billions of dollars to its regime over the next 10 years is inimical to the security of Israel and the Middle East," the letter said.

Holocaust Trivialized

"They should not treat us the way they were treated [by the Nazis]. We must not be a victim of the victim. I did not do anything bad to him."

It is striking that in his statement Abbas presents the Holocaust not as historical fact to be acknowledged but as something "Jews say" which he is willing to "respect." Additionally, his choice of terminology to describe the genocide of 6 million Jews completes his trivialization of the Holocaust:

"... they made sacrifices in World War II."

Palestinian Media Watch has documented that Holocaust denial and trivialization are repeated regularly by the PA.

- ❖ Three days after a performing at a reggae festival in Spain that had previously disinvited him, Matisyahu brought his music to a synagogue near the gates of Auschwitz.
- ❖ The Jewish-American singer gave an intimate acoustic concert Tuesday night in the tiny Chevra Lomdei Mishnayot synagogue in Oswiecim, the town in southern Poland where Auschwitz was built.
- ❖ “Played in the last remaining Synagogue outside of Auschwitz in the city Oświęcim. Peace and blessings,” Matisyahu wrote on his Facebook page. He also quoted a line from his song, “Jerusalem:” “The gas tried to choke but it couldn’t choke me.”
