ISSUES

The resolution, passed last Thursday in the committee stage at UNESCO, referred to the Temple Mount and Western Wall only by their Muslim names and condemned Israel as “the occupying power” for various actions taken in both sites. The resolution was confirmed by UNESCO’s executive on Tuesday.

President Obama is reported to be considering a major reversal in the decades-long U.S. position on recognition of Palestinian statehood during his final months in office. Previous administrations vocally maintained that the international community should not recognize or formally acknowledge Palestinian statehood until a final-status Israel-Palestinian peace settlement has been reached.

Obama, having failed demonstrably to make advancements toward Israeli-Palestinian peace during his nearly eight years in office, believes UN action can get the process back on track.

UNESCO

- ❖ Interior Minister Aryeh Deri (Shas) on Sunday called on all Israeli Jews to converge on the Western Wall on Wednesday to send a message to the United Nations' cultural arm, UNESCO, that the Jewish people will never be separated from its holy sites.

Food for Thought

There is no condemnation of the UNESCO draft resolution coming from the Vatican. Does it mean that Jesus was a Muslim, visiting a Mosque - not the Jewish Temple? Most international idiots are also quiet, as well as the Security Council of the 'Ugly Nazi'! Israel must take over the Temple Mount, demolish the Mosque and reunite Eretz-Israel, removing enemies from Jewish land in the process!

Israel has to stop paying attention to international bigots and anti-Semites, and do what right for Israel and the future of Jewish people! by Steven Shamrak

Palestinian Soccer

- ❖ The Jerusalem-based Palestinian soccer team Hilal Al Quds whose members posed for the picture on Tuesday, two days after Abu Sabih killed two Israelis in a shooting spree in the capital before being killed by police. The team, which plays in the West Bank Premier League, posted the photo to its Facebook page on Tuesday. In it, members can be seen smiling on the field while holding up a banner featuring Abu Sabih, the 39-year-old Silwan resident in East Jerusalem, and a former resident of al-Ram, with the words: "The Hilal al-Quds soccer club mourns the loss of the lion of al-Aqsa [Jerusalem], the martyr and hero."

Fatah Facebook

Fatah has posted several children's drawings on Facebook. The drawings clearly show the success of PA and Fatah brainwashing children to believe that Israel only seeks to harm them, violence is good and that all of Israel really is "Palestine."

Labeling the drawings "innocent drawings" that "express the feelings of children of #Palestine," Fatah posted the drawing above showing Israel, as indicated by a Star of David, eating a Palestinian body wrapped in the Palestinian flag. Blood is seen coming from the body, and a glass of blood is next to the plate.

Homos Practicing

- ❖ The Palestinian terror group Hamas fired at least one long-range missile into the Mediterranean Sea off the coast of the Gaza Strip on Monday morning, in what appeared to be a weapons test.
- ❖ Monday's test comes some 10 days after two projectile strikes in two days from Gaza on nearby Israeli population centers. The first attack – in which a rocket hit a street in the city of Sderot – caused some damage to nearby homes and cars, but no injuries. Three people were hospitalized for anxiety following the strike.
- ❖ The following day, a mortar shell fired from the Strip landed in an open area in the southern Eshkol region. There were no injuries or damage reported from the shell, according to the IDF.

ISLE OF PEACE

- ❖ A Jordanian official denied media reports Monday that Ahmad Dakamseh, a soldier who in 1997 was sentenced to life in prison for gunning down seven Israeli schoolgirls near the border, had been released from prison. Dakamseh in 1997 opened fire on a group of Israeli schoolgirls as they visited the so-called "Island of Peace" at Naharayim (Baqura), a scenic peninsula on the Jordan River near the Israeli border.
- ❖ He killed seven of the girls and wounded five more, as well as a teacher.

Weekly Torah Portion

- ❖ One of the highlights of the holiday of Sukkot in the Holy Temple was the celebration of the special Water Offering, known as Simchat Beit Hasho'eva. As part of this incredibly festive event, the people would gather every afternoon of Sukkot at the Shilo'ach spring in Jerusalem, where water was drawn for the Water Offering ceremony. The water was then paraded back to the Temple, where it was given to the Kohanim, the Priests. At that moment, festive pandemonium broke out. There was dancing, torch juggling, musical orchestras, food (of course! Every Jewish event has food!) and more.
- ❖ Can you imagine this setting? It was at this time that Jesus makes His following claim ... Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. John 7:37

Solah

Jews are neither carrying out a "genocide" against Arabs, nor an ethnic cleansing of them from the disputed territories of Judea and Samaria. To enemies who wish it death, Israel provides water, electricity, jobs, work visas, medical care, and policing services.
