DAN'S MUSINGS

What concerns me? It was not that long ago when a very small minority of motivated gays and lesbians changed the world we now live in! I can no long keep up with all the acronyms ... Gays - LG's - LGB - LGBT - LGBTQ and God only knows what's next. But this subject is not my rant, what I am concerned about its the traction for the so-called "Squad".

I fear we are seeing another erupting ant-semitic movement that will soon be spinning out of control. So, my fellow KFIR, stay put and stay strong and take a stand! As Watchmen, be sure to sound the shofar when you see danger afoot!

NEWS BITES

Former NYC Councilman David Greenfield added: "We've learned over thousands of years that whenever government officials single us out, it's usually not good for the Jews." [JewishInsider]

After Israel announced it would deny the pair entry, Omar said Friday that US aid to Israel should be questioned due to actions that she said were "not consistent with being either an ally or a democracy."

Ramadan Shalah, Head of Palestinian Islamic Jihad:

"[Suicide] operations... is an option which exists... However... there's the separation wall, which is an obstacle for the Resistance [terror]. If it did not exist, the situation would be completely different."

Rashida Tlaib, US Congresswoman:

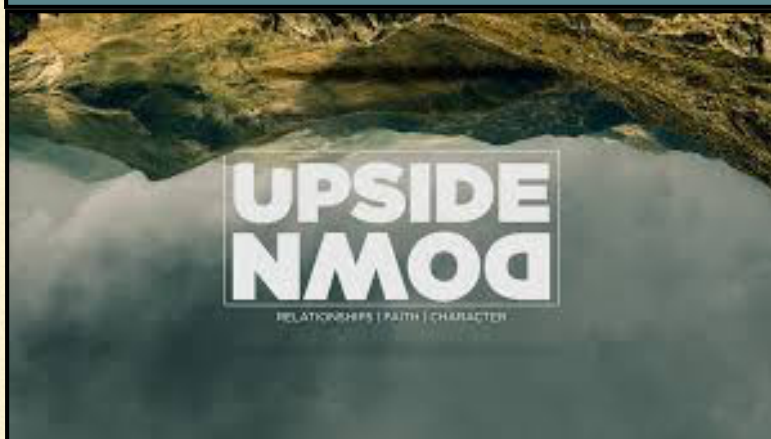

"Walls are destructive, not productive" Rashid Tiaib

THE SAD TRUTH

THINGS SEEM TO BE

In the eyes of Palestinian leaders, Jews are always the "aggressors," while Palestinians are the perpetual "victims"... in the Palestinian lexicon, a Jew peacefully touring the Temple Mount is an "aggressor," while a Palestinian who throws stones and chairs at police officers and abuses the visitors is the real "victim." This is the image Abbas, Hamas and Islamic Jihad are seeking to create in the minds of their people and the rest of the world.

This is what Palestinian terrorism is. A brother and a sister waiting for a ride get rammed by a terrorist in a car because he is a Palestinian terrorist and they are Jews. This attack was incited by the Palestinian Authority which will now support the terrorist's family.

HEZBOLLAH ARSON

A fire that raged along Israel's border with Lebanon Friday appears to be the work of Hezbollah terrorists who have adopted arson techniques that Palestinians in Gaza have used repeatedly to attack Israel.

In the footage, Hezbollah operatives can be seen setting fires near the border. Strong winds quickly fanned the flames and caused the fire to cross the boundary and spread toward an IDF base and the community of Margaliot. UN peacekeepers can be seen patrolling near the fires, but making no attempt to stop the Hezbollah men from lighting them.

The fires caused several landmines placed along the border to explode. Local firefighters took several hours to put out the fire, in an effort that was hampered by the inability to use firefighting aircraft due to the proximity to the hostile border.

5 TERRORIST KILLED

IDF tank fire killed five armed Hamas terrorists along the Israel's security fence on the southern border in the vicinity of Beit Lahiya late Saturday night. Three squads were attempting to penetrate Israel through a tunnel were spotted and eliminated. Other sources are reporting that there was a total of 13 Hamas Terrorists who were part of a 'kidnapping squad'. The eight terrorists who survived the strike reportedly retreated back into the strip through the tunnels. The incident came several hours following the launch of three rockets that were fired into southern Israel from the Gaza Strip.

NO ENTRY – FALLOUT

Omar and Tlaib held a press conference on Monday afternoon, during which they repeatedly accused Israel of “occupying” Palestinian land and attempted to present the Jewish state as a human rights violator and comparing Israel to apartheid-era South Africa.

At the event, Omar and Tlaib repeatedly accused Israel of maintaining an “occupation” of Palestinian land, referring to the Jewish state as “cruel” and “oppressive.”

Omar also claimed that the U.S. should halt aid to Israel if it doesn’t stop the “expansion” of Jewish communities in Judea and Samaria. Later in the event, Omar claimed she had the full support of Jewish leaders and constituents in her district, without elaborating further.

DEBACLE

On Twitter, Trump also mocked Tlaib over her emotional performance on Monday in response to Israel's decision to restrict her travel last week. "Sorry, I don't buy Rep. Tlaib's tears," Trump wrote. "I have watched her violence, craziness and, most importantly, WORDS, for far too long. Now tears? She hates Israel and all Jewish people. She is an antisemite."

Jewish Democrats and mainstream American Jewish groups rushed to condemn Trump's statement, while the Republican Jewish Coalition defended the president.

According to the Pew Research Center, 79% of Jewish voters supported Democratic candidates in the 2018 midterm elections.

BOTTOM-LINE

The itinerary of their trip to Israel is publicly available. Guess what's it called. "A trip to Palestine." That's right. Israel doesn't exist to these people. It's a legitimate concern that it'll now be on the record that Israel banned two Congress women from entering. Yes. I don't like that. It's a price we gotta pay for doing what's right.

What the world will say, how these two haters will spin this as if they're being banned because they're Muslim, how our enemies will call us racist because of this decision?

Oh, and, as a result of this decision, AOC has announced she won't visit Israel. So yea, wins all around. We are no longer in physical exile. We are home. We are the homeowners and we decide who comes over for dinner and who doesn't. We won't be the most popular family in the neighborhood if we don't invite over that young cool hip family that just moved in and makes a ton of noise? It's a price I'm willing to pay.

TRUTH SPOKEN HERE

Palestinians have had 25 years since Oslo to teach their children peace, but they have done the exact opposite. Violence has been reduced not for any moral reason, but because terror is seen as counterproductive at this time. Palestinians still teach their people that violence is a legitimate, moral option, and that terrorists are heroes. They glorify (and pay) all terrorists who murder innocent Jews – even those who kill innocent Jewish children.
