NEWS BITES

The ancient Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem's Old City closed its gates to the public for the first time since 1349, during the Black Plague, due to the coronavirus outbreak.

What's essential? In Britain it's booze, US says guns, France - wine and pastries and Israel votes prayer.

Naftali Bennett, Defense minister unveils plan for phased return to normal after Passover

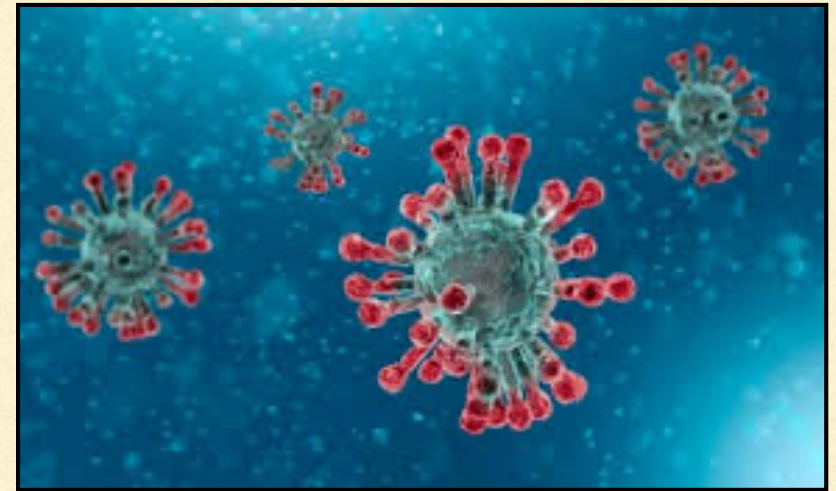

SOME GOOD NEWS

Since last week, there was a consistent decline in the rate of coronavirus infections in Israel, which are now doubling at a rate of once every eight days compared to once every three days.

Prof. Gabi Barabash, former director of the Health Ministry and former director of Tel Aviv Sourasky Medical Center in Tel Aviv told Channel 12 News that as this has been evident over a three-day period, it could, hopefully, indicate a trend.

"If the numbers continue looking like this, they [the government] could reconsider the lockdown after Passover," he said.

ISRAELI LEADERSHIP

Netanyahu, much of Israeli top brass in quarantine as health minister gets virus

Health Ministry chiefs, Mossad boss, national security adviser, all handling response to pandemic, enter isolation along with PM, who just emerged; IDF head already quarantined. Netanyahu will work from his Jerusalem residence until Wednesday in accordance with Health Ministry instructions and the advice of his personal physician, Dr. Tzvi Berkowitz, the Prime Minister's office said in a statement.

ISRAEL HELPING GAZA

- The Palestinian Authority (PA) leadership has done virtually nothing to help the Gaza Strip confront the coronavirus pandemic. Ironically, the only country that has been helping the Gaza Strip in the past few weeks is Israel. The question is, why is the PA ignoring calls to help the Palestinians of the Gaza Strip in their effort to prevent the spread of the coronavirus? One explanation -- that accords with history -- is that if a large number of Palestinians living in Gaza there are infected... the PA leadership wants the world to blame Israel.

- Israel had offered Gaza corona virus test kits and medical help - Hamas responded with rocket attacks!

ROCKETS INTO SDEROT

Notwithstanding the fact that the entire world is focused on fighting the coronavirus pandemic, Palestinian terrorists in the Gaza Strip fired a rocket into southern Israel over the weekend.

The IDF reported that the rocket fell in the town of Sderot on Friday evening.

The terrorists mounted the attack despite the fact that Israel is extending aid and assistance to Palestinians in the battle against the deadly COVID-19 virus.

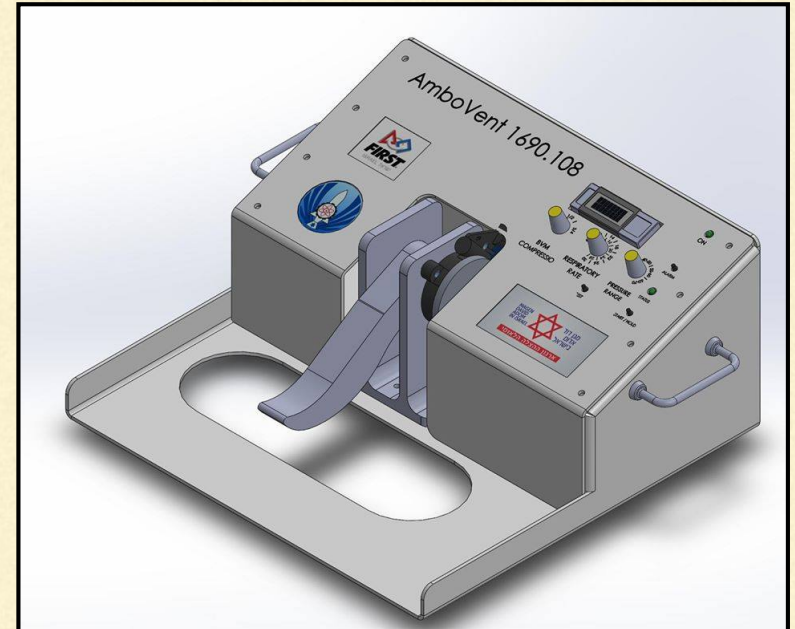

ISRAEL HI TECH HELP

Israel Hi-Tech helping the world fight Covid-19, from my friend Eitan Eliram:

Innovative Israeli makers just hacked this Ambo-bag into a basic life saving breathing machine. Based on design thinking, humanitarian empathy, rapid prototyping and open source code mentality.

The Israeli group now called "AmboVent" is sharing tomorrow all source codes, parts lists, and engineering designs for free so you can print produce and deploy locally in your country and save human lives.

PASSOVER 2020

When I open my Haggadah this year at the seder, the text will proclaim that my night is different from all other nights. And in so many ways it will be right. My Pesach this year will be different from all other nights, and all other Pesachs. Except for one.

ZOOMBOMBING

'Zoombombing' is a word you can unfortunately expect to hear more in the coming days. Virtual classes at Yeshiva University were zoombombed by neo-Nazis yesterday, as were livestreamed synagogue services in London.

A March 24 webinar about anti-Semitism, hosted by a Massachusetts Jewish student group, was interrupted by a white supremacist, who pulled down his shirt collar to show a swastika tattoo on his chest.

CORONA – ROAD TO HELL

'The Road to Coronavirus Hell Was Paved by Evangelicals'

According to Katherine Stewart, "Trump rose to power with the determined assistance of a movement that denies science, bashes government and prioritized loyalty over professional expertise. In the current crisis, we are all reaping what that movement has sown."

Other articles in the media have already sowed the seeds of such divisiveness when the White House previously released a picture of the vice president praying with the coronavirus task force in his West Wing office.

Hemant Mehta, who writes for Patheos.com's wrote that "it's not a joke when people say these Republicans are trying to stop a virus with prayer."

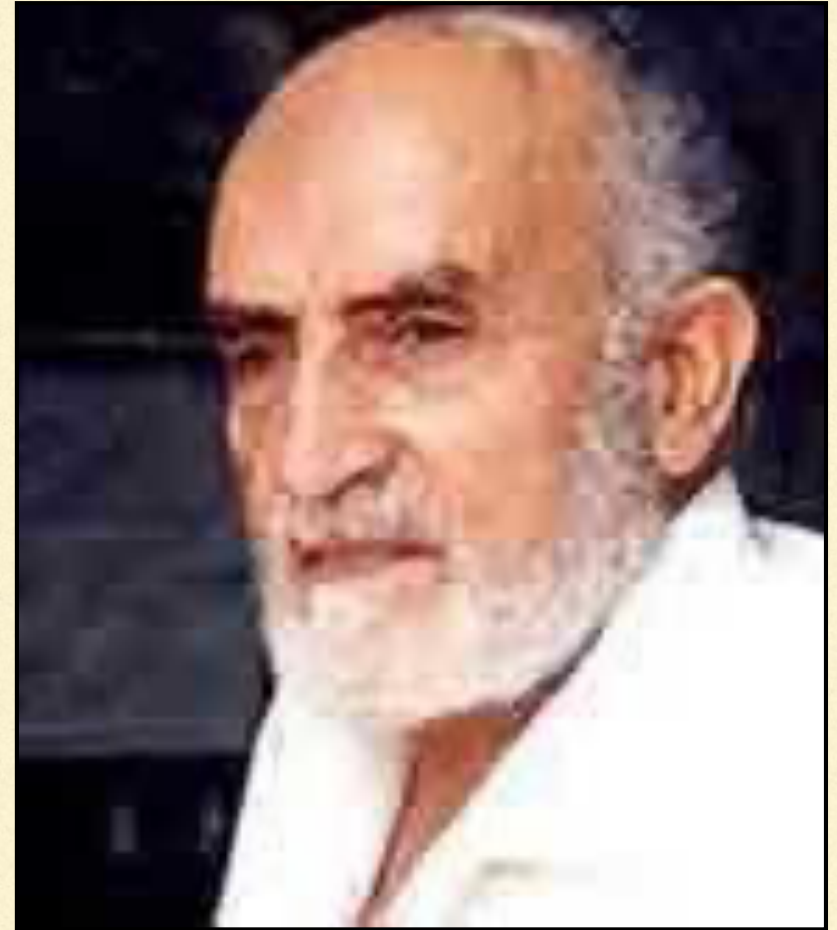

"What else did anyone expect?" Mehta asked. "Science? Reason? Something sensible? Of course not. If this virus truly becomes a pandemic, we're at the mercy of people delusional enough to think their pleas to God will fix the problem."

PA QUOTE OF THE WEEK

We habitually use international aid funds to dedicate facilities in honor of those who committed massacres, to pay lifetime pensions to the perpetrators of such acts, and to support the families of those who were killed or captured in the attempt. Palestinian culture is all but defined by our devotion to uncompromising opposition to Israel, and that finds its most quotidian expression in the allocation of funds to those heroes and their families for purposes of glorifying their acts. Demands from Norway, the US, the EU, and now maybe even the UN... the institutions or individuals who issue those demands will face unwavering, possibly violent, resistance. You cannot define our culture for us! ...Killing Jews is an ancient element of our culture, and the one thing we should be able to agree on. - Mustafa Massiqr

CLOSING THOUGHTS

Former UK Prime Minister Gordon Brown has called on world leaders to form a "temporary" global government in response to the coronavirus pandemic.

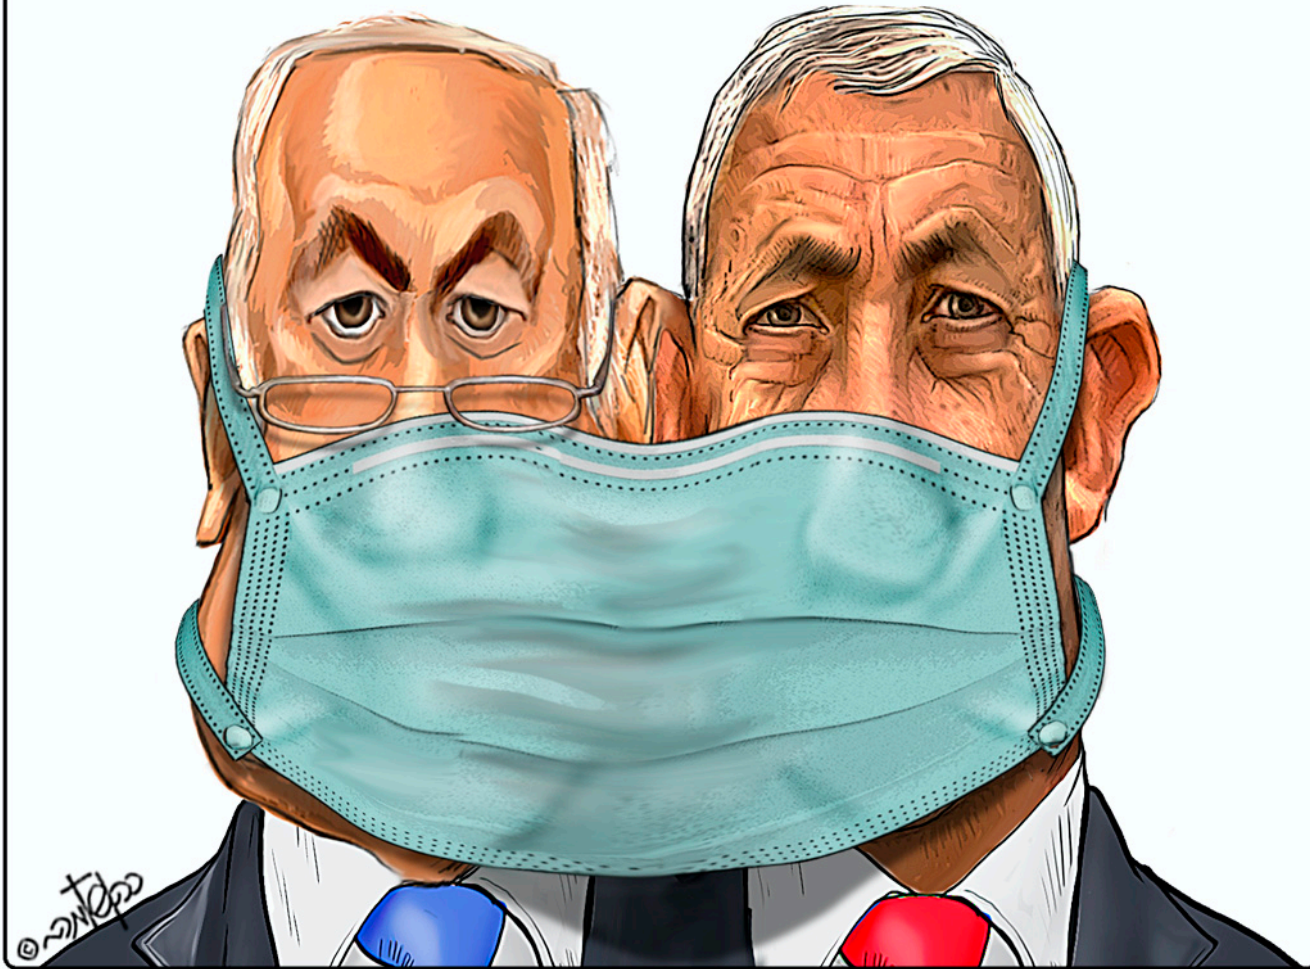

Christian prophecy experts have long warned that the Book of Revelation reveals the eventual formation of a one world government. Will the coronavirus be a stepping stone to the fulfillment of that prophecy? Or is a much larger event to happen known as "The Rapture" going to make the coronavirus look like a blip on the radar?

In a recent poll - Nearly 3 in 10 Americans say coronavirus is 'wake-up call from God' and sign of biblical 'last days'
